

What types of solar panels does Longi offer?

LONGi has two main series of solar panels: Hi-MO 4, and Hi-MO 5, which have a variety of different options to suit residential, commercial and utility-scale projects. The Hi-MO 4 series uses gallium-doped silicon cells which improves the solar panels resistance to LID.

Is Longi a good solar company?

However, LONGi managed to match the level of Sunpower, which produces the most efficient solar panels on the market today, using a new P-type Hybrid Passivated Back Contact (HPBC) cell design, which is similar to the well-known IBC cell design, the first solar company in the world to do so.

What makes Longi Hi-mo 5 solar panels different?

The first and most important feature of the LONGi Hi-MO 5 solar panel series is the technology used to manufacture solar cells. Each solar cell in this series features high-quality P-type monocrystalline silicon wafers doped with gallium, this technology has proven to be cost-efficient, stable, and better for the efficiency of the module.

How does Longi produce solar panels?

LONGi owns most steps in the vertical supply chain to produce a solar panel including producing ingots, silicon wafers and solar cells. This strategy enables them to keep greater control over the supply and quality of each step of the process.

How long does a LONGi Solar panel last?

With the increased stability of Gallium-doped silicon, LONGi is able to reduce the LID effects over the first year to 2% and less than 0.5% per year for the remaining life of the panel resulting in the panel retaining close to 85% of the original power rating after an increased 30 year period.
