Walking in St Helena is something to love. At first glance it comprises a handful of walks through everything from drought ridden to lush landscapes; through expansive vistas to enclosed guts verging on the claustrophobic, and all defined by 21 postbox walks. But once out there the landscape is woven with precipitous and gritty paths...

About Sandy Bay. SEE ALSO: For the other districts of St Helena see the map (below) or our page Districts of St Helena. Sandy Bay is a valley in the south of the island, leading south-east from the heights of the Diana's Peak range to the sea. Although you might expect its exposure to the Trade Winds would make it an uncomfortable place, the angle of the valley seems to give ...
